

The Light Elixir Project LYRICS

New Day Dawning

Here we are making ourselves aware the beginning is now. Washed anew, seeing life with new eyes, we're opening up. We are here in the sunlight, dancing in the breeze. I see the new day dawning. I feel my new life calling to me. I see my light is shining around. I am free.

Here we are standing on solid ground ready to soar. All we see are possibilities leading to more. We are here in the sunlight dancing in our dreams. I see the new day dawning. I feel my new life calling to me. I see my light is shining around.

I used to put myself down. I used to stand in my way. Now I release the past. I'm waking up to a brand new day. I see the new day dawning.

Brand New Beginning

Far too long I remained by myself, I felt afraid. I kept believing it was safe to stay on the outside. I knew there must be something higher, something out there to inspire all the dreams I tried to tuck away. I'm waking up. I see a new way of living, right here a brand new beginning. I found the truth I've always known.

I see the world with brand new eyes. I can't even recognize troubles from my past. They've gone away. An ever present guiding light I can feel inside my heart, stays within me burning bright each day. I'm waking up and I see a new way of living, right here a brand new beginning. I found the truth I've always known. I'm waking up and I see the gift I've been given. I know the truth that was hidden. I finally feel I've come back home.

My life is here for me to build a brighter day, and now I finally found the way. I see a new way of living, right here a brand new beginning. I've found the truth I've always known. I'm waking up. I see the gift I've been given. I know the truth that was hidden. I finally feel I've come back home. I'm waking up.

You're My Heaven

Feel the light turn to night with the calming of the evening sun. Sitting low there it goes dipping down now today's come and gone. Hold my hand take it in as I walk in the sand with you, love. All the lights in the sky, do you think they'll tell us who we are? You're my heaven and I sing it to the stars. You're my heaven I feel grateful in my heart. Now I come to see you I know I wanna be with you forever. 'Cause every moment with you I'm in heaven.

Wind blows high with the tide, in the sky little fires are shining. Capturing all the things that I dream might be possible. Here I am hand in hand as I walk in the sand with you, love. Letting go like a wave in the ocean my eyes turn above. You're my heaven and I sing it to the stars. You're my heaven I feel grateful in my heart. Now I come to see you I know I wanna be with you forever. 'Cause every moment with you - You're my heaven and I pray to the angels that I lift you always and I serve you like the king/queen you are my heaven and I pray to always be with you. You're my heaven.

Light Within Me

Light within me and all around me, I am one in the love. As the sky goes on forever I am one in the love. From the starlight to the ocean, and the wind blowing through the trees, I am one with all I see. I am whole. I am free.

Gazing in the distance I saw across the sky a beautiful rainbow, many colors, one design. As I lay down for the evening I began to close my eyes and a great peace overcame me as I saw we're all divine.

Light within me and all around me, I am one in the love. As the sky goes on forever I am one in the love. From the starlight to the ocean, and the wind blowing through the trees I am one with all I see. I am whole. I am free.

Inside

I had a dream. We were in an unfamiliar place. All of the ground beneath was torn, the memory erased. Right from my heart sounded out a prayer for relief from this desolation everywhere. It's all inside, the world I need. It's all inside, the thing I seek. It's all within the dark expanding space inside.

Birds came in numbers filling out the sky onto the ground to plant the green, the new life. It's all inside the world I need. It's all inside the thing I seek. It's all within the dark expanding space inside.

Over the landscape the green began to grow. We planted a sapling and it took into the soil. In all directions the color came to life, all because the time was taken to invite the thing to die. It's all inside the world I need. It's all inside the thing I seek. It's all within the dark expanding space inside.

No more waiting for that outcome I've been telling...nothing's gonna ever take that space but something coming from the inside. I've been looking outside all this time for something that will fly me away, but all this time it was on the inside.

Let Me Go On

Let me go on and go on and go on, let me go on. I am eternal I am all one let me go on.

I am one with the birds and the trees and the flowers. I am one with the water and the waves and the power that moves within me, that moves all through me, let me go on and on and on. I am one with the wind and the storm and the rainclouds. I am one with my brothers and sisters across the earth. I am the one. Let me go on. Let me go on.

On and on I realize what a gift it is to be alive in this world today, what a special time and place. And with my eyes I clearly see the light in every person place and thing all connected here as one. Let me go on.

Let me go on and go on and go on, let me go on. I am eternal I am all one let me go on.

This Love Will Change You Now

As I ponder my life and my purpose I know the truth of now. I have all I need in this moment, standing on solid ground. Looking back onto all I've accomplished, knowing I've changed somehow. Filled with a light and a presence eternal, this love will change you now. This love will change you now and forever, this love will change you now.

Feeling into the souls of all people, sending the light around, knowing always we're stronger together, this love will change you now. This love will change you now and forever, this love will change you now.

I am alive! In any moment you can be new. In every moment you can be you. All you need is your heart to be true. Love will guide you all the way through. This love will change you now.

Being, Breathing

Ordinary Day

Walking along with your head in the clouds, headphones turned up way too loud. It's the kind of day you're just rolling along, looking for a vibe in your favorite song, with the radio on and the radio up. You know we're singing loud cause we never give up. I've been feeling something calling me from way inside, so I pause turn my gaze to the sky.

Walking along with your head to the ground, somewhere to be no time to look around. People yelling, trucks roaring, overwhelmed with sound. Plugging in my headphones just to dim it down with the radio on and the radio up. You know we're singing loud 'cause we never give up. I've been living in the fast lane for way too long. Time to slow it down, might be time to move on.

Cause I know there's so much more to life than this, remembering to give thanks each day we're blessed. How can you make extraordinary things from an ordinary day? Staring at the sun, time has just begun. Arms as open as the sky, maybe now it's time to fly from this ordinary day.

Lighter Side

Just breathe, 'cause what you do in your present moment is helping the world. Living in your highest vibration creates a wave for others to ride on. Just breathe. This wave of love and peace you feel goes out and helps us all heal. Thank you, thank you for choosing your moment.

Can you find the lighter side of now? Right here everything's ok. Right here I can feel the way. Can you find the lighter side of now? I have all I need. I can see the lighter side of reality.

Right now we have the choice to feel bored or grateful, weak or powerful, heavy or beautiful. Right now we have the choice to feel helpless or hopeful, somber or joyful. To thank our bodies for working so well. Thank you, thank you for choosing your moment.

Can you find the lighter side of now? Right here everything's ok. Right here I can feel the way. Can you find the lighter side of now? I have all I need. I can see the lighter side of reality. I can see the lighter side of Me.

We Are One

Open wide open, sacred devotion, light is falling on the ocean waves. I'm alive breathing in light, heart open wide I melt in this space. Soar freely twirling, energy swirling, dancing and conscious expanding. I'm alive breathing, vibration rising, I am an infinite being. We are one, light and love. We are one, shining like the sun. I'm alive breathing in light, I am an infinite being. We are one, light and love, beautiful people. We are one, beautiful people, shining like the sun. We are one.

Greatest Things

All I see are the greatest things happening before me. All I feel are the greatest things happening within me. And this love expands beauty in my life. Even through the dark I can find the light because I know within my heart that the greatest things are happening for me. All the greatest things are happening for me.

Now I Fly

I am the strength of the frozen tree. I am the first bud of spring. I am the dewdrop in the morning sun. I am the heartbeat of everyone. Can you hear me in the wind? I can feel your voices calling. Can you hear me in the wind? I am home in knowing I am everything.

We are woven in a tapestry. Joined together like the roots of a tree. Ever evolving reaching for the light. I am fire dancing in the night. Can you hear me in the wind? I can feel your voices calling. Can you hear me in the wind? I am home in knowing I am everything. I am whole.

Now I fly. I'm free to touch the sky. Now I fly. I am part of everything. I am part of everything! Now I fly, now I fly, now I'm free to touch the sky. We are woven in a tapestry.

The Light Inside

Oh I was down, head bent in sorrow. I felt my dreams scattered around. I took a walk down by the river in hopes of finding solid ground. When I looked up into the sunlight that streamed in colors through the sky I felt the door of my heart open as that light touched mine inside. 'Cause I've got the light, the light inside, this little light still burning bright. With all I've been through, my light still shines through, this little light of mine inside.

I took a walk to meet the neighbors with my light still burning bright. They talked of sorrow, troubles, and heartache, going well into the night. Then I dared to speak aloud about the light inside of me, and how they all have their own light shining bright for all to see. 'Cause I've got the light, the light inside, this little light still burning bright. With all I've been through, my light still shines through, this little light of mine inside.

One night I woke up in a tremble. I had a dream that I had died. There was an angel who stood before me and showed the moments of my life. All the good times and the hard ones, some I'd laughed and some I cried. Oh if only I could wake up and give my life another try...

Now when I leave this earthly vessel and set my soul and spirit free, I'll still be shining bright forever. This little light will always be!

This little light of mine. I'm gonna let it shine. Let it shine let it shine let it shine. 'Cause I've got the light, the light inside, this little light still burning bright. With all I've been through, my light still shines through, this little light of mine inside.

Amazing grace how sweet the sound that saved a soul like me. I once was lost but now I'm found. I once was blind but now I see. Ahh the light inside, this little light burning bright with all I've been through my light still shines through. This little light of mine inside. Amen!
